“David Culp & Co, LLP has been serving our family for over 2 decades now. My father worked with Kevin Wenger for his business and personal matters and now I continue to use him for both my family and my business. Kevin played a key role helping me decide to go into business for myself & understand all that was involved in doing so. Before my father passed a few years ago he suggested to me in a conversation that there are 2 people in this world that I can trust 110% with my financial well-being and one of those people is Kevin Wenger. Kevin has always been readily available to take my calls and patient with my learning curves, each and every day he continues to prove my father right.”
